NEW BUSINESS:

1. Need to Update Burn Ordinance to Be Consistent with New PA State Regulations: Planning Commission Consultant Fedorek briefed the Planning Commission regarding recent changes to PA state regulations related to residential burning. The revised PA state regulations found in PA code Section 101 and regulate the burning of recycled materials such as plastic, corrugated cardboard and heavy paper and yard waste. As a result of these revisions to state regulations, all municipalities must change their burn ordinances to be consistent.

There were questions and discussion regarding the new state regulations.

Prior to the April meeting, Planning Commission Consultant will forward to the group suggested changes to the Borough of Economy's Ordinance chapter 62 entitled "Burning Outdoor". The group will review this revised ordinance during the April meeting.

Motion to adjourn by Don Lang, seconded by Roger Kowal. Motion passes. The meeting was adjourned at 7:25 p.m.
